GDPR Privacy Statement

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) (Regulation (EU) 2016/679) is a regulation by which the European Parliament, the Council of the European Union and the European Commission intend to strengthen and unify data protection for all individuals within the European Union (EU). The GDPR aims primarily to give control back to citizens and residents over their personal data and to simplify the regulatory environment for international business by unifying the regulation within the EU.

What data do we hold?

We hold the names, addresses, phone numbers, email addresses and Gift Aid declarations provided to us by members. We also hold information on payments and donations made by members to the Society.

What are the lawful bases on which we “store” and “process” your data?

We store your data because there is “legitimate interest” in being able to record your membership and donations made to the Society. We will send information to you and/or contact you about any queries because you have given your “consent” for us to do so.

Your rights:

You have the right to ask for a copy of information we hold on you and ask for it to be amended or deleted.

The Society’s Responsibilities:

We will ensure that your data is kept private and only used by relevant people to carry out Society activities.
